

Update on Urogenital Pain Current issues and Controversies

15th and 16th August 2008
Glasgow Marriott Hotel

A two-day meeting considering the past, present and future of urogenital pain. The aim is to outline current practice and look at what the future may hold.

This meeting is being organised by the PUGO (Pain of Urological Origin special interest group of the International Association for the Study of Pain, IASP). The international faculty are known for their expertise in the area of urogenital pain at both clinical and research levels. There is time for discussion and the development of consensus opinions. This meeting precedes the World Congress in Glasgow allowing delegates to remain in the city for both events. The Marriott is close to both the conference centre and the city centre. Glasgow is easily accessible by air, rail and road.
